Dear Parents, Carers and community members,

Implementation of the Daniel Morcombe Child Safety Curriculum in years 5-7
Throughout this term, students in years 5-7 will be participating in the Daniel Morcombe Child Safety Curriculum as part of Health unit. The curriculum is based on principles of best practice in child safety education and centres around three key messages: Recognise, React and Report. Through a series of lessons, students will learn how to recognise, react and report when they are unsafe or find themselves in situations that can have a significant detrimental effect on their physical, psychological or emotional wellbeing.

Information about the Daniel Morcombe Child Safety Curriculum can be found at www.education.qld.gov.au/child-safety-curriculum. There is also a parent guide attached for families with students in years 5-7. The guide contains an overview of content that will be covered throughout the term. The Daniel Morcombe Child Safety Curriculum has been developed to support Queensland schools’ delivery of key safety messages to students in Prep to Year 9. The curriculum has been developed by a working group comprising: Bruce and Denise Morcombe; the Commissioner for Children and Young People and Child Guardian; officers from the Department of Education, Training and Employment; the Queensland Police Service; and the Department of Communities, Child Safety and Disability Services together with a network of advisors involved in researching child abuse and its prevention.
Students will learn about the importance of rules and that these exist to keep them safe. Please note, as part of this curriculum, students will be learning rules about private body parts which is also included to develop understanding about inappropriate touching. Sadly, there is evidence that children as young as Prep-age are exposed to this sort of harm, and in the majority of cases, by someone they know. Students will use anatomical language for private body parts in lessons to remove the shame and embarrassment often associated with discussing genitalia. Using anatomical language (e.g. penis, vagina) can improve the confidence of children to report inappropriate touching and removes any confusion that nicknames can cause. If you have any questions regarding this curriculum please do not hesitate to contact me.
